SOCIAL EVENTS

Teachers of Public Schools Entertained—Meeting of St. John de Crevecoeur Chapter D. A. R.

Superintendent and Mrs. Corwin F. Palmer entertained the teachers of the public schools, the town school directors and their wives, at the Academy faculty on Friday evening at their home on Sumner street. There were about 60 present and the evening was delightfully social, one giving people with a common interest a chance to become better acquainted. Vocal solos by Miss Brownell and readings by Miss Madeline Randall were much appreciated. Refreshments were served in the dining room, Miss Drake pouring the coffee, Miss Harding cutting the ice cream and Misses Kennedy, Meade, Drew and Hutchinson assisting. Miss Newcomb ushered the guests into the dining room.

Mrs. H. F. Balch and Mrs. Anna D. Pearl were hostesses for the meeting of St. John de Crevecoeur Chapter, D. A. R., Saturday afternoon, Oct. 19. The regular routine business was transacted and interesting reports given of the state meeting at Montpelier by the regent, Mrs. E. H. Ross, and by Mrs. F. F. Hazen and Mrs. D. C. Horner. Mrs. Robert Mackinnon read a paper on "Music and Amusements of the 18th Century" which was very well written and interesting and showed much work in preparation. Mrs. Balch sang "The Minuet" illustrative of the dance of the last century and Miss Gratia D. Balch played "Tavane," which is music of that period, in a finished manner. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. W. Adams and Mrs. J. F. McCarty entertained a company of ladies on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 22, at the home of the latter in honor of Mrs. Lucy Young who has now gone to her home in Sudbury, Mass. The afternoon was pleasantly spent and picnic refreshments were served.

Miss Etta Wright entertained a few friends informally at cards Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George A. Wright entertained a company of ladies on Tuesday afternoon, all of the old neighbors of Mrs. Hattie B. Taylor, who was the guest of honor. The hours were devoted to humming songs for Mrs. Taylor's hospital and in conversation followed by the serving of refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Carpenter entertained the Don't Worry Club at a social last Wednesday evening. About 25 were present and the evening was spent in playing whist, after which light refreshments were served. The winners and losers were Mrs. Mabel Morrison, Mrs. Mabel Carpenter, Alfred Morrison and Harvey Morrison. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Carpenter, Oct. 23.

CHURCH NOTES.

The sermon will contain many facts and suggestions of great value to all who are interested in the religious development of the child. 7 p. m., subject, "Master of His Own Salvation."

AMUSEMENTS

The Fortune Hunter The Next Attraction at The Colonial

It will be the theatrical event of the season at The Colonial Theatre, Oct. 25, when Winchell Smith's comedy, "The Fortune Hunter," will be interpreted by a strong cast. In writing "The Fortune Hunter," Winchell Smith has furnished the American stage with a rural comedy minus the hackneyed types usually found in plays of its order. It is a fresh, clean, amusing, and vigorous exposition of a series of incidents in the life of a young ne'er-do-well, who, to retrieve his almost hopeless career, seeks the seclusion of a country village in order to build up his faltering fortune by a matrimonial alliance with the village heiress.

The Bohemian Girl The Aborn Opera Company will offer at The Colonial, on Wednesday October 30, one night, what is conceded to be the most gigantic production of Balfe's personal opera, "The Bohemian Girl" in English, that has ever been presented on the American stage. The Paris version, specially designed and arranged for the gala season of the French Second Empire quite different from the old English version with which the present generation of opera-goers are familiar, is the one to be seen here.

—Ralph E. Johnson, supreme organizer, and New England Deputy A. O. Palmer will be in St. Johnsbury Oct. 29, to talk to the Modern Woodmen and their friends in I. O. O. F. Hall. Anyone interested in fraternal insurance is invited.
